War.

The world has witnessed about enough of the inhumanity of warfare in the sanguinary contest now waging in Europe, and begins to cry out against a further prosecution of the inhuman slaughter.—What a comment it is upon the civilization of the age, that the visible rulers of the world can hold the people under such subjection, that they may be called out,—one portion of the same country against another—to stand and shoot each other down by thousands! Is there not a hope for humanity above the condition of things presented in so dreadful a spectacle! Read the accounts of the slain and wounded upon the battle field of Solferino, and the horrible inhumanities to which the poor dying creatures were subjected in gathering them together for care and treatment—how like beasts the bodies of men were pitched into pits when the life that made soldiers of them was extinct!

What an exhibition of humanity this, for the nineteenth century of christianity! What has the world been doing, that it has reached no higher plane than the battlefield, and seeks yet the justification of murder at wholesale, while the individualism that takes away life is punished with the gallows!

The world has always been educated to regard Rulers as necessary—that mankind must be governed. So deeply is this principle implanted in the constitution of society, that from the smallest official to the King on the throne each assumes power to the extent of his jurisdiction to govern, and the people yielded, and they who yield the most submissively are deemed the nearest right. We find this principle everywhere in religion, in societies and institutions of all kinds. This is so bare as well as elsewhere—we, a people boasting of our freedom in all things, are the veriest slaves on earth. Let an opinion go out from any one of the great sources of intelligence that assumes to govern, and the people submit. The right of conscience is denied just so far as the power exists to crush out free thought. We have our governors in church as well as state.

The war in Europe is waking up the world to its condition of subservience, man is aspiring to something grander, nobler than to be made soldiers of to rush at death at the command of one man.

We do not advocate the overthrow of government as the world is now, but we do contend for a relaxation of rule, that shall let men think and reason for themselves. Every individual man must learn that he is his own governor, and that he must govern himself—that he must reason out the problem as to the best means for the accomplishment of this end, and that he is held only responsible to a government external to himself, when he fails to do this, and conflicts with the rights of his neighbor.

Man never grows intellectually or morally, any more than physically, from external force; therefore government fails to confer on the race of man any actual good, it is only a protector, a palliative not a remedy. When man shall learn to govern himself, and be permitted to do so, then Kingdoms and Empires will crumble down, and the needs of War and Government will come to exist. Where is the man who thinks and reasons, that would voluntarily place himself upon the battlefield, where is the right to place him there against his will!

They have many good personal qualities even in Austria. Here is one almost good enough to obtain a passing favor from the New York Times. In Austria no one can receive a license to marry unless he is able to subscribe his name with his own hand to the certificate. A very good law.

The Buffalo Commercial suggests for the benefit of citizens of neighboring towns the following as a remedy to keep off mosquitoes:—Olive oil one ounce, Kresote twenty drops, mix and anoint the parts exposed.

The Rochester Union advises as a substitute Buffalo gin, and guarantees that the mosquito that attempts to take blood from the man who has drunk the gin, will die instantaneously.

We would advise mosquitoes if they have the least regard for prudence to keep away from both Buffalo and Rochester. The editors of those places are maliciously disposed towards them.

SHOCKING MURDER IN WILLIAMSON—GREAT EXCITEMENT—THE MURDERER FLED.—On Thursday the 14th inst, two men, Jeremiah Demelt and Thomas Dunlap, the latter being intoxicated, got into a dispute and after some altercation Dunlap struck Demelt on the head with a club felling him to the earth and fracturing his skull. Demelt died on Monday last. On Wednesday Coroner Palmer held an inquest, the post-mortem examination being conducted by Dr. S. A. Sabine, of Palmyra assisted by Dr. J. Brant, of Ontario. The jury rendered a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death by a blow or blows inflicted by Dunlap, on the head with a club. The murderer has fled, but it is thought that the officers in pursuit will soon be able to arrest him. This Dunlap has been known for a long time as a desperate character, he being rumored that he previously caused the death of two men in drunken fights. The deceased lived in the same house with Dunlap, in the town of Williamson. They were about fifty years of age. Great excitement prevails in the community. The murderer is supposed to be in the woods near the scene of his crime.—Pal. Cour.

A Milan correspondent of the Boston Atlas and Bee says: "At the chateau of Carrara was a lady with two sweet children, who were caressed and received sweet-meats, in the morning of the 25th from the Austrian Kaiser, and in the evening from the Emperor Napoleon! Do not, however, suppose that these brilliant successes blind the eyes of the people to the cost at which they are bought. 'Two more such victories, and the army is hors de combat,' said a French soldier,—and when we consider that out of about 14,000 men, which the official organs acknowledge, Marshal Niel's corps alone lost 6,000 men, Barague d'Hilliers 4,950, and others less severely, the remark is not without its point. You will recollect too, what I have written as to the state of feeling here towards the French. 'We shall dance to French music, after all,' said a gentleman in a caveau near the Duomo."

The Italian editors are heard of again. The morning after the French occupation of Milan, several journals that had been suppressed by the Austrian government, reappeared. One had been suppressed five years, and in the last number had promised the "conclusion" of a story in the next. True to promise, the next, at the end of five years, took up the story where it had been left off, and concluded it.

We see by the papers that an exciting race for $25 a side, recently came off at the Poughkeepsie ferry dock, across to the Palis Landing, in tubs, four feet in diameter, without oars; the vessel, was paddled by hand. The river was smooth, and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the contestants started. Both men struck out manfully, until two thirds of the distance had been passed, when one had given up from exhaustion; the other, having more bottom, came in an easy winner in two hours and fifty-five minutes. The vanquished man was towed ashore.

THE TIDE OF EMIGRATION.—The Omaha Nebraska states that up to June 25th, one thousand eight hundred and seven wagons, twenty band-carts, five thousand four hundred and one men, four hundred and twenty-four women, four hundred and eighty children, 1,610 horses, 406 mules, 6,016 oxen, and 4,000 sheep, had crossed that ferry this year exclusive of the Mormon emigration. The Elwood (Kansas) Free Press says that since the decline of the Pike's Peak travel forty teams have crossed the Missouri River at that point per day—the teams carrying an average of five persons each.

THANKING PROVIDENCE BY RESOLUTION.—The farmers of Dauphin County, Penn, recently held a Harvest Home, at the conclusion of which three resolutions were passed; the first, thanking Providence for the good crops; the second, thanking the Committee of Arrangements and the Railroad Company; and the third thanking the host and hostess of the occasion.

The N. Y. Saturday Press says that in this country there is less moral and mental independence and more fear of Mrs. Grundy than in any country in the world.

Funeral of Hon. Rufus Choate.

Bozons, July 23

The funeral ceremonies over the body of Mr. Choate, which took place at the Essex street Church at 11 o'clock this morning, were attended by a large crowd of sympathizing citizens. Gov. Banks, the Judges of all our Courts, representatives of the entire Massachusetts bar, the Mayor of the city, the members of the various branches of our municipal government, together with the family and immediate friends of the deceased, filled the church in every part, so that thousands of citizens were unable to gain admittance. The funeral sermon was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Adams, pastor of the church. At the close of the service the hearse proceeded towards Cambridge through Boylston and Charles street, a large procession following the remains to the bridge. So impressive a funeral pageant has seldom, if ever, been witnessed in this city. Mr. Choate's remains were interred at Mt. Auburn.

Ferugia Massacre—Battle of Solferino.

New York, July 23.

The Evening Post has seen private letters which state that the massacre of the Papal troops, at Perugia, had created an intense excitement in Milan, and on the 2d of July, the Pope, Cardinal Antonelli and Col. Schmidt were buried in effigy on the Piazza d'Armi. It is said that 2,000 soldiers had repaired to Bologna to protect that city and support the Provincial Government.

The news of the battle of Solferino created as great sensation at Naples as elsewhere, and the young King despatched a messenger at once to congratulate the allies.

It is further rumored that an envoy extraordinary would be sent to him to form an alliance with the Sardinian government.

A PROFITABLE ORATORIO.—The great Handel Festival recently held in the Crystal Palace near London, was something like an entertainment. The receipts fell not far short of $140,000. Deducting expenses there would still be a balance of $60,000. The receipts on the last day, when "Israel in Egypt" was given, amounted to very nearly eighty thousand dollars. This, of course, is entirely without precedent in the history of public performances.

The new fashion of cutting boys' hair close as to make their heads look like a shoebrush, is said to have its origin in the "Hyar law" of the prize ring. Young America bristles about in a comic way—his crown shined within half an inch of his scalp, and his moustache flaring out like that of a sick kitten.

Some learned newspaper editor out West says "that the simplest way of calculating the distances of heavenly bodies, is the rule laid down in John Phenix's celebrated lecture upon astronomy, viz: guess at one half the distance and multiply by two."

The New Orleans Commercial Bulletin, of July 11th, gives in the full returns of the different auctioneers appointed to sell the immense property belonging to the M. Donough estate in that city. For the quarter ending June 28th, 1858, the total amount of sales foot up the handsome figures of $3, 819, 309 14.

An anvil block was cast in England, which, when finished, will weigh 214 tons. The quantity of metal melted for it was 27 tons, and it was cast in one run. It is to be used in the making of the "Armstrong" guns.

Mr. T. Varnum, of Kent County, Maryland was last week engaged in threshing wheat by steam. The Kent News says: A gentleman who has witnessed its operation informs us that it works admirably, and expressed the opinion that in time it will be more generally used. It requires two feeders and about thirty hands, and threshes and fans from six to eight hundred bushels per day.

The number of emigrants arrived at the port of New York for the week ending July 20, was 1,392, making a total of 44,670 since the commencement of the year, against a total of 42,868 for a corresponding period in 1858.

The Kalila Sentinel, in summing up an article in regard to productiveness, says:—"Taking the prospects altogether, if we recur to death during the present year, it will be because prosperity will have made us too busy to eat."

Samples of new wheat are coming in from various parts of Canada West, indicating an abundant crop and excellent quality. The weather is very favorable for the growing crops.

An extensive mail robbery was perpetrated at Kalamazoo on Tuesday. The bags were taken to the woods and all the letters opened and money abstracted.—There must have been carelessness on the part of the officials.

Our Natural Boundaries.

We should be surprised to learn that the following story, in the New Hampshire Patriot, is from the pen of ex-President Pierce.

Captain—, of the United States navy, was equally distinguished for his eccentricity of manner and his proficiency in seamanship. On one occasion, during a cruise in the Mediterranean, he so acquitted himself as to induce some English and French officers, who were engaged upon similar service, (cruising,) to tender him a complimentary dinner, as an evidence of their appreciation of his professional skill. At the time designated, many were present. Customary courtesies were being exchanged, and international toasts and sentiments were being liberally indulged in, accompanied by corresponding politeness, when one of the officers in her Majesty's service having become somewhat obnoxious, remarked, with characteristic brusqueness:

"Captain, I have but one great objection to your countrymen."

"Ah!" naïvely said the captain, "what is that?"

"An insatiable desire for the acquisition of territory." Then becoming excited by his subject, he continued—"I am satisfied, there will be no end to it."

"Oh, yes," quaintly and coolly replied the captain.

"For goodness' sake when?" emphatically inquired the officer.

"When," responded the captain, preserving his equanimity, "we reach our natural boundaries."

"Will you please inform me where those may be?" interrogated the English officer, sarcastically.

"Where?" said the captain, assuming an inimitable manner, "from k-i to the Aurora Borealis!"

CONSUMPTION CURED!

DR. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY.

of LIME, and of SODA.

Originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. J. F. CHURCHILL, of Paris, as a Specific Remedy for CONSUMPTION!

The extraordinary results obtained in all cases of pulmonary disease by Dr. Churchill's new discovery—the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND OF SODA—removes all remaining doubts as to the absolute value of this Discovery.—Consumption is no longer to be regarded as an incurable malady.

Many hundreds of physicians have already adopted this treatment with almost universal success. Let an Consumptive delay a moment to try it. It is their last hope!

Dr. Churchill says:

"I am satisfied that the HYPOPHOSPHITES should be brought, as speedily as possible, into universal use, as I know that they will prove not only

As Sorely Needed in Consumption as Quinine is in Intermittent Fever, but also as Effectual a Preservative as Vaccination in Small Pox."

"In six months I have found the remedy fully to produce everything that could reasonably be expected from it."

"Out of twenty-two cases in the third or last stage, treated at my Dispensary, during the past year, eight have completely recovered, eight have died, and six are still under treatment. Such a result is altogether unparalleled in the annals of Medicine."

"This Remedy is the most powerful generator of blood known, and is equally efficacious in all forms of Debility, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Disease, Chlorosis, Hypocondria,—as whenever depends on deficient vitality of the system."

Winchester's Genuine Preparation is put up in large bottles with the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. J. F. Churchill's Hypophosphites of Lime and of Soda. J. Winchester, New York." Each bottle has also a fac-simile signature.

"No other can be relied on as the pure Hypophosphites. Unless perfectly pure, they are not only useless, but positively injurious. No iron or other drug should be combined with them, or taken at the same time."

"Full Directions for use. A liberal discount to physicians and the trade. The Dry Salts furnished to the profession. Single bottles in concentrated solution sent by mail, when especially ordered. Sold wholesale and retail at the Sole General Depot in the U. S., 42 John Street. Let no one deceive you, but purchase and use only Winchester's Preparation."

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption is now ready, and will be sent gratis to any Consumptive or Nervous sufferer in the U. S., on receipt of twelve cents in stamps to cover the cost of postage. Also, circulars and all requisite information without charge. Let no one delay, for time is precious in so fatal a malady as consumption. Address,

We are requested to call attention to the fact that a party of young men, by their noisy conduct in the Streets last night, reflected seriously upon their parents who allowed them to contract habits of idleness and otherwise failed to bring them up in the way they should go.

LECTURES FOR THE FIRE SIDE, by the late Dr. Wm. A. ALCOCK, is a neat volume of 388 pages, written in the true humanitarian spirit which characterized all the writings of Dr. Alcock. The scope of the work may be gleaned from the fact that it is the substance of a course of Lectures or conversations with a Bible-class, first delivered in Boston, and subsequently in other places. It is written in a plain familiar style embracing much thought and careful study. Dr. Alcock was an eminently useful man, and his works are such as will live after him.

THIS MORNING'S REPORT.

Arrival of the North Briton.

VERY IMPORTANT NEWS.

THE WAR CONCLUDED!!

Lombardy Transferred to the King of Sardinia.

AUSTRIA RETAINS VENICE!!

The Italian Confederation under the Honorary Presidency of the Pope.

FURTHER POINT, July 24

The steamship North Briton from Liverpool 18th inst, arrived off this point at a very early hour this morning.

Her dates are four days later than those already received.

Among the passengers by the North Briton is Cyrus W. Field, who has accomplished the object of his visit to Europe.

The Paris Monitor gives the following explanation of the circumstances attending the armistice between France and Austria:

The great neutral powers exchanged communications with the object of offering their mediation to the belligerents, whose first act was to be an armistice, but the endeavor to bring about this result was not successful until some days ago, when the French fleet was about to begin hostilities against Venice, and a new conflict before Verona was imminent.

The Emperor of France, faithful to his sentiments of moderation, and anxious to prevent the useless effusion of blood, did not hesitate to assure himself whether the disposition of the Emperor of Austria was conformable to his own. It was a sacred duty for the two Emperors immediately to suspend hostilities, which mediation could render obsolete.

The Emperor of Austria having shown similar intentions, the armistice was concluded.

The two Emperors had an interview at Villafranca on the morning of the 11th.

The Emperor of Austria was accompanied by Generals Hase, Gramann, Kalner, Kellermann, Roweng, Schletter, and others of his staff.

TURIN 11th.

An official bulletin published the text of the armistice. Besides the articles already known, it is stated that the belligerents will keep the positions they now occupy. The railways to Verona, Peschiera and Mantua may, during the armistice, be used to carry provisions to those fortresses.

Peschiera and Mantua are being provisioned, and the provisioning of Verona will be completed in two days. The works, offensive and defensive, of Peschiera are to remain in their present state.

The convention is signed by Marshal Vaillant, and General Martineau, Delarocce and Meerhoff.

The Emperor Napoleon has issued the following order of the day:

VALLAUGUO, 10.

Soldiers—An armistice was concluded on the 11th, between the belligerent parties, to extend to the 15th of August. This truce will permit you to rest after your glorious labors, and to recover, if necessary, new strength to conclude the work which you have so gloriously inaugurated. I am about to return to Paris, and shall leave the command of the army to Marshal Vaillant, but as soon as the hour of combat will have struck you will see me again in your midst, to partake of your dangers.

The Times' Vienna correspondent says that it was believed there that the British Government had brought about the armistice.

Another authority says that the Prince Regent of Prussia took the initiative in suggesting the armistice.

The Vienna Gazette says of the armistice, that an autograph letter addressed by the Emperor Napoleon to the Emperor of Austria, led to the negotiations, the result of which was a five weeks armistice.

A Vienna telegraph dispatch says that the armistice was concluded after repeated requests from the French, and after their consent had been obtained to all the conditions asked by Austria.

The gunboats destined for the bombardment of Peschiera have been launched on the Lake de Garda.

The Times' Paris correspondent says that the typhus fever raged in both the camps in Italy, and that 10,000 to 11,000 were attacked within the allied army.

It was said that Napoleon's plan for revolutionizing Hungary and Transylvania was disapproved of by Russia.

It was reported that Kossuth was to propose a monarchical government for Hungary.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH. FROM LONDON TO LIVERPOOL.

The result of the interview between the Emperor of France and the Emperor of Austria was the concluding of a peace.

The following is the telegram from Napoleon to the Emperor, announcing the fact:

VALLAUGUO, July 11.

Peace is signed between the Emperor of Austria and myself. The basis of peace are: The Italian Confederation, under the honorary presidency of the Pope; the Emperor of Austria concedes his rights in Lombardy to the Emperor of the French, who transfers them to the King of Sardinia; the Emperor of Austria preserves Venice, but she will form an integral part of the Italian Confederation.

The Daily News affirms that the first hope and expectations of Italy are deceived.

It adds—History will call the Emperor to a strict account for having made war on false pretences, and signed a mock and selfish peace—a peace that leaves Austria impregnable in Northern Italy—that connects Central Italy to the passage of the Pope, and to the constant menace of military intervention on the part of the Pope's patrons and protectors—that takes no account of the welfare of the people, and substitutes for national independence, a confederation under the lock and key of Austrian garrisons.

The Emperor of France has sown the seeds of future wars, and the closer we examine the pretended pacification the more futile and iniquitous it appears.

The Morning Post of yesterday contends that the soul of the treaty agreed upon is the nationality guaranteed, under every variety of local government, in a Confederation of the Italian States.

The Emperor of Austria is to be King of Venice, solely as an internal monarch of the Confederation. He will rule less than 3,000,000 Italians, and will be controlled by a Confederation ruling not less than 28,000,000.

The Pope is shown virtually of his temporal supremacy. He is deprived of substance, but keeps the shadow.

As Spring is upon us, and hot weather expected, and a few boxes of Herrick's Matchless Pills—(Dundas Road).

PHYSICIANS USE THEM.

Dr. C. T. Parnest, of Baltimore, M. D., a graduate of Dr. Herrick, says: I have tested your purgative Sugar Coated Pills in a variety of diseases, and find them superior to any cathartic I ever used. My customers, particularly the female portion, have fallen in love with them, and frequently ask me to give them the Sugar Coated Pill. Your discovery in coating a pill with sugar should immortalize your name, and I could not your invention will be handed down to future posterity as a discovery worthy the day in which we live. Please accept my thanks for the cure of all which reached me this morning by express, enclosed find the amount of your bill. Sold everywhere.
